Teacher Needed

"Our current team teacher has completed her commitment here in Mozambique, and we need someone to fill her place. If you, or anyone you know, might be interested in coming to teach our team kids for the 2015 – 2016 school year (or longer), please let us know! We already have one young lady and need someone to join her. Having team teachers for our kids helps us so much! It frees up the women on the team to be able to spend more time in ministry with people here. This position is extremely valuable to us and to the work here." Thank You-Amy Westerholm

Welcome!

Welcome to the Church in the Falls. We believe it is God's will that we meet together to express our love for Him and for others. For this reason, we thank God for the grace of your presence among us this morning, and we are excited that we all get to experience God's special presence among His people today.

It is our intention to grow as disciples of Christ and to help others who are seeking the Lord to grow in their faith. In order to accomplish this, we hold as of first importance our love for God, our love for each other, and our love for our neighbor. Therefore, we emphasize the importance of participating in weekly Sunday morning worship services, weekly small group fellowship times, and regular ministry projects to our neighbors.

Please join us this morning in responding to Christ's love and life with our love and our lives, and let's consider what God is going to do among us today.

“Are We There Yet?”

By James Ryle

And Jesus said unto him, “Thou art not far from the kingdom of God.”
(Mark 12:34)

Standing at the west end of Monumental Park with a group of happy pilgrims taking in the sights and sounds of God's amazing Grace, we heard a fellow in our group call out and ask, “Are we there yet?” His voice was a bit strained, and betrayed a measure of mild exasperation.

“What do you mean?” a fellow traveler asked.

“The Place called Grace – are we there yet?”

Everybody was stunned. I must admit that I myself was a bit perplexed at this fellow's disconnection to the moment. How could he not know where we were?

“Dude, we've been here for quite awhile!” somebody else in the group replied.

Realizing this guy needed help, I then said, “At the start of our Journey I told you all that we would be traveling far to a place that is nearby; and once we are there, you will realize that we've actually been here all along. Remember me saying that to you?”

“So, are you saying we have arrived?” the fellow then asked.

“You're the only one who can answer that,” I replied. “Grace is a place where you experience a power because you have met a Person.”

That Person is the Lord Jesus, the King of Grace and Glory. The power is the incomprehensible influence of His redeeming presence in all things, at all times. And the Place of Grace is everywhere humble men and women live freely to do God's will fully.

“So, let me ask the question a different way,” I then said. “Have you arrived?”

The perplexed brother stared at me in silence.

Grace is a place where you experience a power because you have met a Person. Nobody knows but YOU when that moment occurs. It is that moment when you realize that you cannot, and you will not, live another day outside this place called Grace.

So let me now ask the question — “Have you arrived there yet?”

Love In Christ,
Ron
